

At SJV we are blessed to have our own peaceful sanctuary in which the children can come to for moments of personal prayer. It is also an alternative space where classes can meet to participate in both child-led and teacher-led liturgies. We pride ourselves on the fact that we have a place for the children to come when they need to have time out of their busy schedules to be closer to God.

