INTRODUCTION

Staff are often the first to realise that there may be something seriously wrong within the School. Normally, employees would be expected to raise any concerns initially with their Head Teacher. However, they may not express their concerns because they feel that speaking up would be disloyal to their colleagues or to the School. They may also fear harassment or victimisation. In these circumstances it may be easier to ignore the concern rather than report what may just be a suspicion of malpractice.

St John Vianney Catholic Primary School is committed to the highest possible standards of openness, professionalism and accountability. We expect employees, and others that we deal with, who have serious concerns about any aspect of the School's activities or employees, to come forward and voice those concerns. It is noted that most cases will have to proceed on a confidential basis. Anyone raising a concern is protected by the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998.

This policy makes it clear that you can raise concerns without fear of victimisation, subsequent discrimination or disadvantage. Our Policy is intended to encourage and enable staff to raise serious concerns within the School rather than overlooking a problem or "blowing the whistle" outside. This policy does not replace the School's Complaints Procedure and applies to all employees and contractors working for the School on School premises e.g. supply staff, contractors. It covers suppliers and those providing services under contract with School on their own premises or in other premises where services are delivered.

These procedures are in addition to the School's complaints procedures and other statutory reporting procedures applying to the School. The School is responsible for making service users aware of the existence of these procedures. If you would like to speak to someone informally about a concern, prior to raising an issue under the Whistleblowing Policy you may contact the Employee Assistance Programme on 0800 525 967 or speak with Ann Dixon, Whistleblowing Contact on 01253 476512 in confidence.

Aims

This policy aims to:

- ◆ Encourage you to feel confident in raising serious concerns, to question and act upon concerns about practice;
- ◆ Provide avenues for you to raise those concerns and receive feedback on any action taken;
- ◆ Ensure you receive a response to your concern and that you know how to pursue them if you are not satisfied;
- ◆ Reassure you that you will be protected by the School from possible reprisals or victimisation if you have a reasonable belief that you have made any disclosure in good faith.

This Policy is intended to cover major concerns that fall outside, or in a particular instance do not appear to have been properly addressed, within the scope of other procedures, including:

- ◆ Conduct, which is an offence or a breach of the law.
- ◆ Failure to comply with a legal obligation

- ◆ Disclosures related to miscarriages of justice;
- ◆ Health and safety risks, including risks to the public as well as other employees;
- ◆ Damage to the environment;
- ◆ The unauthorised use of public funds; including possible fraud and corruption;
- ◆ Sexual or physical abuse of clients, or child protection concerns
- ◆ Other unethical conduct, including the deliberate covering up of information relating to the above.

This Policy is intended to assist staff who believe they have discovered malpractice/ impropriety. It is not designed to question financial or management decisions taken by School, nor should it be used to consider any matters, which have already been, or are currently being addressed under other procedures e.g. Complaints procedure, Disciplinary and Grievance and Equality Policies. Serious concerns that you have about any aspect of the School's practice or the conduct of colleagues/ employees of the school or members of the Governing Body or others acting on behalf of the School can be reported under the Whistleblowing Policy. This may be about something that:

- ◆ Makes you feel uncomfortable in terms of known standards, your experience or the standards you believe the School subscribes to; or
- ◆ Is against the School's policies; or
- ◆ Falls below established standards of practice; or
- ◆ Amounts to improper conduct.

SAFEGUARDS - Harassment or Victimisation

We are committed to good practice and high standards and want to be supportive of employees. The decision to report a concern can be a difficult one to make especially for staff who are new to the School. If what you are saying is true, or your suspicions are reasonable, you will have nothing to fear. You will be doing your duty to the School and to those for whom you are providing a service. In fact, you may be making yourself vulnerable if you do not raise the alarm. Any investigation into allegations of potential malpractice will not influence or be influenced by any disciplinary or redundancy procedures that already affect you.

We will not tolerate or allow any form of harassment, victimisation or discrimination (including informal pressures) and will take appropriate action to protect you when you raise a concern in good faith. If there are any intimidatory threats or instances of harassment/ victimisation/ discrimination against a 'whistleblower' the School will take appropriate disciplinary action against the individual(s) concerned.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All concerns will be treated, as far as possible, in the strictest confidence and every effort will be made not to reveal your identity if you so wish. However, if your concerns require any further action, you may at some future date have to act as a witness and/or provide evidence.

ANONYMOUS ALLEGATIONS

This policy encourages you to put your name to your allegation whenever possible. Concerns expressed anonymously are much less powerful but will be considered at the discretion of the School. In exercising this discretion the factors to be taken into account would include:

- The seriousness of the issues raised;
- The credibility of the concern; and
- The likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources.

UNTRUE ALLEGATIONS

If you make an allegation in good faith, but it is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against you. If, however, you make an allegation frivolously, maliciously or for personal gain, disciplinary action may be taken against you.

HOW TO RAISE A CONCERN

As a first step, you should normally raise concerns with the Head of school. This depends, however, on the seriousness and sensitivity of the issues involved and who is suspected of the malpractice. For example, if you believe that the Head of school is involved, you should approach the Chair of Governors in the first instance who may, depending on the circumstances, have to liaise with the Director of Children's Services. Concerns should be raised in writing. Staff who wish to make a written report are invited to use the attached Form P11 at Appendix 1 which enables you to identify the background and history of the concern (giving relevant dates); and, the reason why you are particularly concerned about the situation.

The earlier you express the concern the easier it is to take action. You are not expected to prove beyond doubt the truth of an allegation; but, you will need to demonstrate to the person contacted that there are reasonable grounds for your concern. Advice/Guidance on how to pursue matters of concern may be obtained from:

Headteacher – Mrs Clare Evans
Chair of Governors – Mrs Sonia James

- ◆ Director of Children's Services
- ◆ HR Children's Services
- ◆ The Executive Head Teacher, Mrs. Elaine Allen
- ◆ Head of School, Mrs Clare Evans
- ◆ The Chair of Governors, Mrs. Sonia James
- ◆ The Authority's Whistleblowing Contact, Ann Dixon on 01253 476512

You may wish to discuss your concern with a colleague or your Trade Union Representative, first as you may find it easier to raise the matter through someone you trust. You may invite your trade union, or a colleague to be present during any meetings or interviews in connection with the concerns you have raised.

HOW THE SCHOOL WILL RESPOND

The School will respond to your concerns. Do not forget that testing out your concerns is not the same as either accepting or rejecting them. Where appropriate, the matters raised may:

- ◆ Be investigated by appropriate representatives, internal audit, or through the disciplinary process;
- ◆ Be investigated under another procedure i.e. Child Protection/Safeguarding
- ◆ Be referred to the Police;
- ◆ Be referred to the external auditor;
- ◆ Form the subject of an independent inquiry. (See Appendix 2); or a combination of these

In order to protect individuals and those accused of misdeeds or possible malpractice, initial enquiries will be made to decide whether an investigation is appropriate and, if so, what form it should take. The overriding principle, which the School will have in mind, is the public interest. Some concerns may be resolved by agreed action without the need for investigation. If urgent action is required this will be taken before any investigation is conducted.

Within ten working days of a concern being raised, the Head/Chair of Governors will write to you in confidence:

- ◆ Acknowledging that the concern has been received;
- ◆ Indicating how we propose to deal with the matter;
- ◆ Giving an estimate of how long it will take to provide a final response;
- ◆ Telling you whether any initial enquiries have been made;
- ◆ Supplying you with information on staff support mechanisms, and
- ◆ Telling you whether further investigation will take place and if not, why not.

Every effort will be made to ensure that your concerns are dealt with as speedily as possible and you are kept informed of progress made. The amount of contact between the officers considering the issues and you will depend on the nature of the matters raised, the potential difficulties involved and the clarity of the information provided. If necessary, the School will seek further information from you. Where any meeting is arranged, off-site if you so wish, a trade union representative or a colleague can accompany you.

The School will take steps to minimise any difficulties, which you may experience as a result of raising a concern. For instance, if you are required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings the School will arrange for you to receive advice about the procedure.

The School accepts that you need to be assured that the matter has been properly addressed. Thus, subject to legal constraints, we will inform you of the outcome of any investigation.

THE RESPONSIBLE OFFICER

The Head /Chair of Governors has overall responsibility for the maintenance and operation of this Policy. He/she will maintain a record of concerns raised and the outcomes (but in a form which does not endanger your confidentiality) and will report as necessary to the School.

HOW THE MATTER CAN BE TAKEN FURTHER

This Policy is intended to provide you with an avenue within the School to raise concerns. The School hopes you will be satisfied with any action taken. If you are not, and if you feel it is right to take the matter outside the School, the following are possible contact points, (this list is not exhaustive):

- ◆ The Director of Children’s Services
- ◆ The Health and Safety Executive
- ◆ The Financial Services Authority
- ◆ H M Customs and Excise
- ◆ The Inland Revenue
- ◆ The Police
- ◆ The District Auditor
- ◆ The Ombudsman
- ◆ The Environment Agency

If you do take the matter outside the School, you should ensure that you do not disclose confidential information. Check with the Director of Children’s Services before disclosing any information.
